Cookies

In addition to the aforementioned data, cookies are stored on your computer when using our website. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your hard drive as associated with the browser you are using and through which certain information is sent to the website that sets the cookie (here by us). Cookies are used to make the Internet offer more user-friendly and effective.

Our website uses the following types of cookies, the scope and functionality of which are explained below:

TRANSIENTE COOKIES

Transient cookies are automatically deleted when you close the browser. This includes, in particular, session cookies. These store a so-called session ID, which can be used to assign various requests from your browser to the common session. This allows your computer to be recognized when you return to our website. Session cookies are deleted when you log out or close the browser.

PERSISTENT COOKIES

Persistent cookies are automatically deleted after a predetermined duration, which may vary depending on the cookie. You can delete the cookies in your browser's security settings at any time.

You can configure your browser setting according to your wishes and, for example, refuse to accept third-party cookies or all cookies. Please note that you may not be able to use all the features of this website.

We use cookies to identify you for follow-up visits if you have an account with us. Otherwise, you would need to log in again for each visit.

GOOGLE ANALYTICS

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc., 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA ("Google").

Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are stored on your computer and which enable an analysis of your use of the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website (including your IP address) is transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. Google will use this information on our behalf to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide other services relating to website and internet usage to website operators. We only use Google Analytics with active IP anonymization. This means that the IP address of the users is truncated by Google within Member States of the European Union or in other contracting states of the Agreement on the European Economic Area.

Only in exceptional cases will the IP address be transmitted to a Google server in the USA and truncated there. The IP address transmitted by your browser within the scope of Google Analytics will not be merged with other data from Google. You can prevent the installation of cookies by setting your browser software accordingly;

however, we would like to point out that in this case you may not be able to use all functions of this website to the full extent. You can also prevent the collection of data generated by the cookie and related to your use of the website (including your IP address) to Google and the processing of this data by Google by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available at the following link:

<https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=de>.

We use Google Analytics to analyze and regularly improve the use of our website. For more information about Google's Terms of Use and Google's Privacy Policy, see <https://policies.google.com/?hl=de>.

data integrity

The security of our data is our highest concern. We therefore strive to take all necessary technical and organisational security measures to ensure the security of data processing.

Your personal data will be processed by us in such a way that it is protected from accidental or intentional manipulation, loss or destruction or from access by unauthorized third parties. Our security measures are continuously improved in line with technical progress.

OPPOSITION OR REVOCATION AGAINST THE PROCESSING OF YOUR DATA

If you have given your consent to the processing of your data, you can revoke it at any time. Such revocation affects the admissibility of the processing of your personal data after you have given it to us.

Insofar as we base the processing of your personal data on the balancing of interests, you can object to the processing. This is the case if the processing is not necessary for the performance of a contract with you, which is presented by us in the following description of the functions. In exercising such an objection, we ask you to explain the reasons why we should not process your personal data as we do.

In the event of your justified objection, we will check the situation and will either discontinue or adapt the data processing or show you our compelling reasons for protecting us, on the basis of which we continue the processing.

Of course, you can object to the processing of your personal data for the purposes of advertising and data analysis at any time. You can inform us about your advertising objection at the following contact details: office@we-consulting.at or call +43 676 9467467.
